At KTNV-Channel 13 Action News we are committed to making Las Vegas a better place for locals and their families. We strive to solve the everyday problems that can make life in Las Vegas frustrating.

Action News tackles problems that government and big business ignore. We ask the tough questions and hold those in authority accountable.

Attached are the community based stories covered by KTNV-Channel 13 for 4Q09 reflecting (5) significant issues that Southern Nevadans are affected by the most; Health and Welfare, Economic Development, Politics, Education and Public Safety.

Our community involvement extended far beyond covering these issues in our newscasts this 4Q09. Along with covering these stories that matter to the Southern Nevada community, Journal Broadcast Group's On-Air Talent and Behind-the-Scenes staff addressed our community's needs by participating in local events that were areas of concern for them.

Specific to 4Q09 was the annual Salvation Army Coats for Kids drive, where our On-Air personalities lent their talents and led the Las Vegas Valley to collect over 11,000 coats to keep the children in our community warm during the winter. In the days following that event, our anchors and reporters headed to four different corners of the Las Vegas Valley to collect over 69,000 food items for the City Mission, who through that donation were able to help feed those less fortunate this holiday season.

HEALTH AND WELFARE/ENVIRONMENT

NEWS SEGMENT: State Health Officials say the number of Nevadans on Medicaid could double over the next six years. About 222,000 Nevadans currently get care through Medicaid. However, the state says the National Health Care Bill, under consideration by the Senate Finance Committee, would add 217,000 recipients to Medicaid by 2015: Increasing Nevada's costs by up to 18%. Senator Harry Reid is working on Amendment to shift that cost to the Federal Government. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 10/05/09- 6PM Newscast. (:25 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Swine Flu Vaccine is in Nevada. In fact the first doses of the vaccine were given to some hospital workers and first responders Saturday. And while more doses are headed to our state, many have expressed concerns about getting it. But tonight a top US Health Official says the risks associated with the actual Swine Flu are much greater than those associated with the vaccine. The official with the Centers for Disease Control says it's perfectly safe to get shots for the Swine Flu and the Seasonal Flu on the same day, but doctors recommend waiting three weeks between doses if you get the nasal mist form. Produced by Traci Wilson, Broadcast Date: 10/11/09- 6PM Weekend Newscast. (:35 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: What do you do when the desert is getting trashed? You enlist a volunteer army made up of companies, community organizations and local residents. Give them weapons of choice; including gloves, plastic bags, as well as plenty of water and then start cleaning things up. This is the kick off to a program called Desert Stewardship, in which people do a better job watching out for the desert. In a city already faced with a massive foreclosure crisis and struggling economy, there are few things in our control. The dumping is something that is preventable. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 10/17/09- 11PM Newscast. (:66 Seconds).

A final decision will come tomorrow. Produced by Traci Wilson, Broadcast Date: 11/08/09- 11PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Southern Nevada Health District is continuing to vaccinate people against the Swine Flu. Clark County got another 10,000 doses of the injectable form of the vaccine, but they already administered 5,000 shots this past weekend. Since there's still a shortage, the shots are only going to people in priority groups. The mist form is available for those who are eligible. There are two clinics at the Ravenholt Public Health Center. Produced by Nicci Pucci-Johnson, Broadcast Date: 12/18/09- 9AM Newscast. (:40 Seconds).

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

NEWS SEGMENT: Las Vegas Casino Executives say it could be another ten years before the building boom returns to Las Vegas. The Heads of the MGM, Sands and Harrah's talked about the future of our city in an article in Sunday's Wall Street Journal. There has been plenty of spending during the past few years on projects like City Center, but when the economy tumbled so did plans for the future. NEWS SEGMENT: Experts say it could be years for the housing market to bottom out. They say Southern Nevada could be one of the areas that's hardest hit. In fact, the analysis firm says home prices in Las Vegas could plunge another 24% by June next year, that's on top of the 55% drop since the housing crisis started. Recent surveys have shown that prices have stabilized, but many believe it's because of the tax credit for 'first time' home buyers which expires in November. Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 10/20/09- 4PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Our state gets more bad news. The Department of Taxation reports taxable sales in August dropped by nearly a quarter statewide compared to the same month last year. In that same time, Clark County's contributions have dropped by more than 26%. 15 of Nevada's 17 counties are in the same boat. And only the Food and Beverage service industry is reporting an increase in sales. Today the Governor's office released a statement, saying quote "August sales and use tax figures demonstrate that the people and businesses of Nevada continue to feel the effects of the recession..." Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 10/28/09- 630PM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Federal Officials are crediting the $787 billion economic stimulus package for saving or creating more than 650,000 jobs including 5600 here in the Silver State. According to Recovery.Gov, Nevada has been awarded about $988 million in Stimulus funding, but has received less than that. The website says the money that has come in has created or saved exactly 5,667 jobs. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 10/30/09- 6PM Newscast. (:50 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: According to the LVCVA visitor volume here in the valley has increased 4.3% in September, which has Las Vegas hopeful that there might be a light at the end of the tunnel. The numbers are good news, especially in a city like Las Vegas that thrives and virtually sustains itself off the tourism and entertainment industries. The spike in tourism makes this the first year over year monthly increase since May 2008. Convention attendance was also up 12% even though there were fewer events held in September compared to the same time last year. Tourists say they feel optimistic enough about the economy that they can actually loosen up the money belt and start spending again without ending up in the red. We're not out of the woods yet, but these numbers do indicate a boost in consumer confidence. As more people feel financially stable at home, they'll make their way out here to spend some cash. Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 11/10/09- 4PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: According to a new report, released today by the Pew Center, Nevada could be the last state in America to dig itself out of the recession. Listed as reasons: Nevada's deep unemployment rate, the rising number of foreclosures and the plunging tax revenues. The Pew Center says nine other states shown in red on the map are also facing long term economic recovery. Produced by Traci Wilson, Broadcast Date: 11/11/09- 11PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Another problem that's still plaguing the economy is the foreclosure crisis. A new report shows a 3% decrease in the number of filings last month. Still, Nevada has the highest foreclosure rate in the nation. It's the 34th straight month we've held the title. Produced by Alison Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 11/12/09- 11AM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: The Economic Crisis could mean layoffs for the city of Las Vegas. It's one of the hot topics at today's city council meeting. The City Chief Financial Officer is giving a presentation on the State of the Las Vegas Budget. The city faces a potential $400 million shortfall in the next five years because of continuing drops in sales tax revenue. Layoff and other ways to cut city expenses will be discussed. Produced by Alison Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 11/18/09- 11AM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: Even as City Center opens, the state's economy continues to struggle. New figures show sales tax revenues plunged in September by almost 18% marking the 11th straight month of double digit declines. Nevada businesses sold more than $3 billion in taxable goods which translates into about $247 million in revenue. That's down overall by 15% compared to the first 9-months of last year. Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 12/01/09- 4PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: New figures show bankruptcy filings in October rose across Nevada by more than 60% over the last year. That's according to the U.S. Bankruptcy Court of Nevada. Nevada ranks first in the nation for the number of bankruptcies filed per capita and is the state with the fastest rising bankruptcy rate. There were almost 25,000 bankruptcy filings through October which is more than double the total from last year. Produced by Brian Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 12/10/09- 6PM Newscast. (:30 Seconds).

With today's additions the total number of mediators is now up to 170. Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 12/11/09- 4PM Newscast. (:20 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: What looks like good news, may not be. The Chief Economist for Nevada's Employment Department says the 12.3% translates to more than 161,000 Nevadans who are out of work. Bill Anderson says the workforce is shrinking because people are either tired of looking for jobs or leaving the state and the drop in jobless rate indicates our state's economy is in worse shape than previously thought. Anderson says the jobless picture may be worse than currently reported when you factor in workers whose hours have been cut plus the state is now borrowing money from the Federal Government to pay current jobless claims b/c Nevada's trust fund has run out. Produced by Sharon Tutrone, Broadcast Date: 12/17/09- 4PM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

The goal of the meeting was to come up with a clear understanding of what the state needs to provide versus what counties and cities need to provide. Produced by Alison Anslinger, Broadcast Date: 10/15/09- 11AM Newscast. (:45 Seconds).

NEWS SEGMENT: A former School Board Member wants Rory Reid's County Commission seat. Democrat Mary Beth Scow is the first to declare candidacy for the spot. Scow served 12-years on the Clark County School Board. Reid's term ends next year. He's not seeking re-election because he's running for governor. Produced by Nicci Pucci-Johnson, Broadcast Date: 10/28/09- 9AM Newscast. (:15 Seconds).
